

Hope Mohr: Three Generations of Dance

Thursday, March 4th - Saturday, March 6th

Theater Artaud, 450 Florida St.

Event time: 8 p.m.

Phone: 415-626-4370

$18-$25

For her third home season, Hope Mohr presents works by three generations of female choreographers at Theater Artaud. Performances feature the world premiere of Far from Perfect by Hope Mohr, a new solo called Mass Balance created and performed by Molissa Fenley and the legendary Yvonne Rainer's pioneering work Trio A. Each dance maker has strong ties to both the Bay Area and New York City, giving this series an extra special local connection. Mohr's goal this season was to highlight choreographers who have influenced and inspired her, and each piece dazzles in a different way. From a multimedia show instituting text, painting and projection to a pivotal performance of postmodern dance, this is a must-see.